

CALLING ALL COMMUNITY HEROES

Highnam Parish Council

NEEDS YOU!

MAKE A CHANGE BECOME A COUNCILLOR

WHAT DO LOCAL COUNCILS DO?

Highnam Parish council has an overall responsibility for the wellbeing of our local community. Their work falls into three main categories:

Delivery of services - Improve quality of life for residents

- Give communities a democratic voice

Local councils run numerous services, depending on the size of the council. Many you will see day-to-day, but some are less known. These include setting up community groups, organising community buses, preparing neighbourhood plans, responding to planning applications, establishing youth projects, managing open spaces, maintaining footpaths, public seating and litter bins.

BECOMING A LOCAL COUNCILLOR

As a local Councillor you can become a voice for your community and make real change. Local Councillors are the champions of their community who invest time in local projects and issues to the benefit of residents and the neighbourhood. Local Councillor responsibilities fall into three main categories:

• Decision-making - Monitoring - Getting involved locally

Local Councillors attend to local needs of residents, local groups and businesses, make decisions on local services, collaborate with district and borough councils to adhere to local needs, and progress vital projects to invest in the future of the community.
